

How does 988 find local resources?

211 Virginia is a free service that connects Virginians to local resources.

When someone calls 988, and they request connection to additional community or mental health services, the crisis worker on the line has access to Virginia's 211 catalog of resources and can connect the caller to local programs that meet their needs.

211virginia.org

Add your organization to the 211 catalog.

988va.org